Course Title:

Modern Lease Accounting Standards for CPAs

Course Description

- This 10-hour self-study course is designed to meet the Accounting Continuing Professional Education (CPE) requirement for Certified Public Accountants. The program provides a structured, in-depth review of the Financial Accounting Standards Board's (FASB) lease standard, ASC 842, which redefined how leases are recognized, measured, and disclosed under U.S. GAAP.
- Through a six-section curriculum, the course explores foundational lease concepts, classification rules, recognition and measurement requirements, disclosure obligations, industry-specific applications, and forward-looking considerations. Practical case studies, embedded comparisons, and safeguards highlight risks of misapplication and provide CPAs with tools to strengthen compliance and audit readiness.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Explain the core principles of ASC 842 and distinguish it from prior GAAP lease standards.
- Apply lessee and lessor accounting requirements, including recognition of right-of-use assets and lease liabilities.
- Evaluate lease classification, embedded lease identification, and transition provisions.
- Calculate measurement of lease liabilities, amortization of right-of-use assets, and account for lease modifications and impairments.
- Assess presentation and disclosure requirements across lessees and lessors, including balance sheet, income statement, and footnote obligations.
- Identify industry-specific applications such as real estate leases, equipment and vehicle arrangements, sale-leasebacks, and related-party transactions.
- Recognize common risks, compliance pitfalls, and disclosure deficiencies that affect audits and financial reporting.
- Prepare for the final exam to satisfy the Florida Board of Accountancy's accounting CPE requirement.
